

Notice about

Buddhist Sanctum of Former Tokeiji Temple building and Gekkaden building.

Thank you for coming to Sankeien Garden.

We kindly ask for your cooperation when entering our cultural buildings to protect buildings.

All your belongings must be held in front of your body.

*Large items that cannot be held in front of your body are not allowed to be brought in.

please refrain from the following.

Photo nor video recording inside the buildings

Run inside the building.

Enter areas other than those open to visitors.

Touch the walls, Fusuma (paper-covered sliding doors and partitions) or furnitures.

Please watch your step inside the building.

Damage the building.

Taking actual measurements of buildings. Please consult us separately if you wish.

Only pencils are allowed in the room (no mechanical pencils, ballpoint pens, etc.).

Drink nor food

Use fire

<Notice>

- You may find some fine split on the floor inside buildings, please be aware your step.
- If unlikely incident happened that included dirty or damaged items through intention or negligence, Sankeien Hoshokai Foundation will inspect and decide that repair or restoration is necessary, and you may be bear all costs.